For what it's worth I was told by a CAT salesman that "0" series were developed so that Cat could compete price wise with other brands, particularly in the bidding process with government departments. "12 foot moldboard machines are all the same" which seems to be the way a lot of the government bidding seems to work.

My m11 IH 1995 had a injector bad code (different motor, but still select)- misfire on #5. Cummins said ecm, all injectors, and harness needed replaced (lets just throw parts at it shall we- that's $6,000, for about a $8,000 truck) I swapped injectors around, problem stayed at the same injector, so..... I sent the ecm off (ebay repairman @$500), problem persisted- ended up being in one of the ...
