Cold War II (also called the New Cold War or Second Cold War) is a popular term for the ongoing state of political and military tension between opposing geopolitical power-blocs, with one bloc typically reported as being led by Russia and the other led by the United States, European Union, and NATO. It is akin to the original Cold War that saw a stand-off and proxy wars between the Western ...

Cold War II - Wikipedia

Believe it or not, the Cold War, which took place after World War II between 1947 and 1991, is often overlooked as one of the great wars of the last few generations. It took place between the Soviet Union and the United States of America for a number of reasons including the American fear of communist attacks and the USSR's hatred of capitalism.
