Today I am continuing the series titled "Why I Am Not..." and in these articles I am telling what I do believe by looking at what I do not believe. So far I have told why I am not atheist, why I am not Roman Catholic, and why I am not liberal. Today I want to tell why I am not Arminian. (If you are uncertain of what I mean by Arminian, Theopedia has a brief but excellent article that ...

Theologians often like to use fancy words to describe biblical teaching and categories. In two articles in this issue of Theology for Life Magazine, I'm going to explain what the communicable and incommunicable attributes of God are. In this article, we'll start with the communicable attributes of God. Dr. John Frame helpfully explains these terms [...]
