We know from the stories of Francis' life that in his time Europe was undergoing significant changes. Although Muslim and Christian armies would continue to fight over the possession of the holy sites of the Middle East for another century, away from the battlegrounds, transport was becoming safer, trade was burgeoning, and merchants such as Francis' father were beginning to

INTRODUCTION. The scene of today's Gospel was at the feast of Tabernacles, in the autumn of the year before our Lord's death. The Jews, aroused to violence over the rebuking words of Jesus, sought to kill Him by stoning, but since other circumstances and another time had been eternally decreed for His passion and death.
