Safety and vehicle roll-over questions. the Forester meets federal safety standards for Passenger Vehicles. The Forester does not require a roll over warning label on the driver's visor and has excellent emergency handling. (All other small sport utilities are required to have a safety warning that they don't handle like a normal car and extra care must be taken to prevent roll over and injury)

I recently became aware that my 2001 Forester has a leaking head gasket and a bad wheel bearing. Although the vehicle is 12 years old, it has only 95,000 miles and has been meticulously cared for (I have all the service records dating back to the first oil change). I contacted Subaru and kindly asked that they include my car in their extended head gasket warranty because of the vehicle's low ...
