Mermaid and the Minotaur: Sexual Arrangements and ... - Lexile

At its most immediate and activist level, her great book, The Mermaid and the Minotaur is the Uncle Tom's Cabin of men raising children. When men did this for most of human history, they developed the human qualities now wrongly called "feminine" - patience, attention to detail, flexibility, value for human life; everything that comes from raising, or being raised to raise, children.

It must have been somewhere around 1970 that people began urging me to get this book out soon, while it was still timely. But I had in fact outlined the main themes of its first nine chapters, and started writing it, years before it was at all timely in the newspaper-TV sense these people meant. The ...
